WALPOLE ISLAND POLICE BUILDING WALPOLE, ON

Building Size: 5,655 square feet
Building Start: June, 2007
Building Complete: October, 2007

PROJECT PROFILE

Institutional
Project: # 1075004

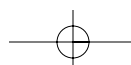

Complete turnkey project, the modular police services building was transported to site in prefabricated sections about 85% completed so time to complete and site disruption were kept to a minimum.

PROJECT OVERVIEW:

As a result of a combined Federal and Provincial Government initiative to fulfill a longstanding commitment to provide the people of Walpole Island First Nation with a new, permanent police services building, NRB was pleased to be chosen to replace the old and dilapidated existing structure with a new building more reflective of the community and its immediate needs. The building was finished in architectural stone to blend in with the community.
